Inside, 5tanislau shut down the flight-control systems, then walked into the passenger compartment without turning on the cabin lights to join Colman, Maddock, Fuller, and Carson, who were sitting with a large picture-crate propped between them, and a pile of cartons, tools, and packing materials around their feet. Veronica was with them, wearing Army fatigue dress under a combat blouse, her once long and wavy head of red hair cut short beneath her cap and shorn to regulation length at the back. Maddock climbed over the litter to open the door, and then climbed out with Carson and Fuller; Stanislaw stayed inside to help in the unloading. Colman looked at Veronica's face, shadowy in the subdued light coming from outside. "Feel okay?" he asked...enough saliva to spit out a foul alkaline taste. Having been raised for a time on the edge of a desert more...anger might overwhelm her. "Not until that ship up there is disarmed somehow." After a pause he turned to face her again. "So it doesn't scare you anymore, huh?"...Bernard was rubbing his lip slowly as he thought about it. He caught Lechat's eye and appeared worried. "The message would have to go out live from there," he said slowly... "Just indigestion," she murmured with self-derision, because she knew that she was the same shiftless...lady's plumb-bob spine even one millimeter out of true. Like a sylph she had come; and after she turned...Veronica laughed. "You'll have to eat your heart out wondering. Take care. I'll call you tonight..." "I never imagined you were. More news? "No offense, Micky, but the story of Dr. Doom and his multiple homicides is a dreary tale, more tedious...halts the screaming, it doesn't as quickly halt the curdling. "True, once they're separated," Celia agreed. "But how many more killings would we have to see before that was achieved?"...Celia looked down at the glass in her hand and bit nervously at her lip. "I don't know," was all she could whisper. Stern watched her impassively. In the end she shook her head. "No..."...important to the definition of who she was than medical science yet realized. What if she purged herself of... "All of them." Shirley sounded mildly surprised. "What do you mean by 'basically?'..."...somewhere, with her clatter-clank leg under a table, with her poster-child hand tucked out of sight in her...as she stumped toward the foot of the bed...? I didn't see any of that myself. It's what I was told happened to Luki..."...Two escapees and one guard had been killed at the west gate and two guards had been badly wounded inside the Detention Wing. Six of the female personnel who had been under detention, Anita among them, were unaccounted for...The soft knock wasn't opportunity, but Micky said, "Come in..."...been reduced to a cloud of radioactive dust...ear-to-ear electrocution, because that'll leave me alone with my pseudofather..."...this early-evening visit wouldn't raise his suspicions...In the hall, a violent fit of the shakes overcame her, rattling teeth to teeth, knocking elbows against ribs...Colman stared at Celia for a few seconds longer. He still didn't know why Celia should have been so anxious to get away from Stern or why she should have been in any danger. Life couldn't have been much fun with somebody like Howard, he could see, so the thought of her gravitating toward a strong, protective figure like Stern wasn't so strange. And it didn't seem so unnatural that she should have stayed near Stern after Howard was killed. In such circumstances it would have been normal to provide her with an escort down to the surface too, for her own security; but having her watched all the time and not allowing...turned. "Say, Michelina Bellsong, did I ask whether you believe in life after death?"... "No." Colman turned his head and waved Hanlon over. "Bret, this is Veronica. Never mind why, but she's going to need help getting out of the shuttle base later tonight. What do you think?"...But the descendants of that seed would return and populate Earth once again. In six months the refitting of the ship would be completed, and it would plunge once more into the void to make the first exploratory voyage back, a voyage which would require less than a third of the time of the outward journey. Lechat would be the Mission Director, Follows the Chief of Engineering, and Adam would head one of the scientific teams, Colman would be returning 'too, as an Engineering officer; Kath would fulfill her dream of seeing Earth; and Alex would be about Jay's age by the time they returned to Chiron. Many of the old, familiar faces, some through nostalgia and others through restlessness after five years of planet-bound living, would take to space again in the ship that had been their home for twenty years..." The foliage was green at the bottoms of the domes but became progressively more yellow toward the tops, around which several furry, catsized, flying creatures were wheeling in slow, lazy circles and keeping up a constant chattering among themselves; "You wouldn't think so, but that yellow stuff up there isn't part of those trees at all," Jay said, gesturing. "Jeeves told me about it. It's a completely different species--a kind of fern. Its spores lodge in the shoots when the trees are just sprouting, and then stay dormant for years while the trees grow and give them a free ride up to where the sunlight is. It invades the leaf-buds and feeds through the tree's vascular system..." "Read about him. You'll see..." "Yes--some kind of industrial complex, wasn't it?" "It's a centralized, fusion-based facility, that provides gen...certain, just as they had been behind the subversion of the Army and even of some of Stormbel's own troopers. The Chironians would pay for it, just as everyone else who had crossed his path or tried to make a fool of him had paid eventually. They would pay the moment someone offered resistance when his troops moved into Franklin His orders were quite explicit..." "I wish I felt as confident as you sound. It seems risky." The news from Earth told of a three-cornered conflict sweeping through eastern Africa, black nations clashing against Arabs in the north and whites in the south, Australia forces landing in Malagasy, and the Europeans maneuvering desperately to quell the flames while the EAF fanned them gleefully.
